
From: Burdette, Jessica (COMM) <jessica.burdette@state.mn.us>
Sent: Tuesday, May 05, 2020 10:11 AM
To: McShane, Sally Anne (PUC) <sally.anne.mcshane@state.mn.us>
Cc: Seuffert, Will (PUC) <will.seuffert@state.mn.us>
Subject: Fwd: utility policies

FYI from Keewatin.

Jessica Burdette

Begin forwarded message:

From: billking@mchsi.com
Date: May 5, 2020 at 10:03:45 AM CDT
To: Jessica.Burdette@state.mn.us
Cc: keewatin <keewatin@mchsi.com>
Subject: utility policies

This message may be from an external email source.
Do not select links or open attachments unless verified. Report all suspicious emails to Minnesota IT Services Security Operations Center.

Minnesota Municipal Utilities association

To Whom it May Concern:

Starting in April 2020, the Keewatin Public Utilities will not charge customers any late fees. Our Utility also extended the Minnesota Cold Weather Rule and will not disconnect residential customers.

Our Utility will work with residential and business customers on payment plans.

These temporary policies will remain in effect until the peacetime emergency due to COVID-19 is over.

William King, Mayor
City of Keewatin